PRESS RELEASE

CONVICTED: GARY TABORELLI
18 River Road
Pohatcong, New Jersey 08865
Date of Birth: October 28, 1973

On December 11, 2017, Gary Taborelli was found guilty of two separate Second Degree charges and one Fourth Degree charge by a Warren County jury in Superior Court before the Honorable Robert B. Reed, P.J. Cr.

During the trial the defendant was represented by Neil Gillespie, Esq. and Amy M. Knutsen represented the State.

Defendant Taborelli was specifically convicted of Second Degree Endangering the Welfare of a Child (sexual conduct), Second Degree Endangering the Welfare of a Child (providing a child marijuana and alcohol) and Fourth Degree Criminal Sexual Contact.

These convictions stem from the defendant engaging in sexual conduct with a minor as well as providing the minor with marijuana and alcohol on September 12, 2015. The crimes occurred in Pohatcong Township, Warren County. The defendant was known to the victim.

The State called several witnesses, including the victim, to testify at trial.

Upon his conviction today, Judge Reed granted the State's motion to revoke the defendant's bail and remand him to the County jail pending his sentencing.

Defendant Taborelli is scheduled to be sentenced on January 26, 2018 before the Honorable Robert B. Reed, P.J. Cr. Defendant Taborelli is subject to a maximum of 10 years New Jersey State Prison, on each Second Degree count, and 18 months New Jersey State Prison on the Fourth Degree count. Defendant Taborelli will also be subject to Megan's Law Registration and Parole Supervision for Life.
